National Day of Prayer
May 5, 2022

Prayers Compiled by Trinity Baptist Prayer Team

“But all of us—at home, at war, wherever we may be—are within the reach of God’s love and power. We all can pray. We all should pray. We should ask the fulfillment of God’s will. We should ask for courage, wisdom, for the quietness of soul which comes alone to them who place their lives in His hands.” —Harry S. Truman

Pray for: The War in Ukraine

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” Psalm 46:1

Wisdom and guidance for the President and his advisors in all decisions concerning the war.

Pray that God will work in the hearts of leaders and intervene to bring an end to the fighting.

Pray that God would help every Ukrainian and draw them to Himself. May God protect and sustain all who are bringing physical and spiritual aid.

“And let us not trust to human effort alone, but humbly acknowledge the power and goodness of Almighty God who presides over the destiny of nations, and who has at all times been revealed in our country’s history, let us invoke His aid and His blessings upon our labors...I know there is a Supreme Being who rules the affairs of men.” —Grover Cleveland

Pray for our: Nation

“...know therefore today, and lay it to your heart, that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.” Deuteronomy 4:39

That we would know that the LORD is God.

Turn this nation’s heart back to You.

Deliver us from evil.

“History shows us that nations as well as individuals are strong only so long as they have faith in God.” —Benjamin Rush

Pray for our: President, Vice President, Senate and Congress

“Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.” Psalm 2:10-11

Act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with God.

That they will put the people ahead of their own political parties or agendas—always mindful of those they are serving.

Anoint them with wise leadership that maintains order and increases the well-being of all Americans.

“The time has come to turn to God and reassert our trust in Him for the healing of America...our country is in need of and ready for a spiritual renewal...” —Ronald Reagan

Pray for our: State and Local Leaders

*“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way.”
1 Timothy 2:1-2*

Be granted wisdom and the desire to use it rightly on our behalf.

Desire honesty, integrity and loyalty.

Be God fearing and recognize that they are accountable to Him for each decision and act.

“Our faith teaches that there is no safer reliance than upon the God of our fathers...who will not forsake us so long as we obey His commandments and walk humbly in His footsteps. —Abraham Lincoln

Pray for our: Judges - Federal, State and Local

“Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts.” Amos 5:15

May our judges preside objectively and fairly, making decisions that uphold our constitutional laws.

“I remind all Americans of the line from the Star Spangled Banner: ‘In God is our trust.’ These are not just ringing words of poetry...they reflect the very soul of our great nation; our purpose as well as our source of greatness. —Lyndon B. Johnson

Pray for our: Military

*“Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle; he is my steadfast love and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield and he in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me.”
Psalm 144:1-2*

Guidance, wisdom and protection as they serve this great country.

Chaplains would have the freedom to speak the truth and present the Gospel.

Protection and support for the families at home.

*“Man must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love.”
—Martin Luther king Jr.*

Pray for our: First Responders

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” Psalm 46:1

Wisdom, discernment, and alertness in every situation. Compassion to help others who are in danger or traumatized.

Surround them with Your protection.

“The secret of my success? It is simple. It is found in the Bible, ‘In all Thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths’.”

—George Washington Carver

Pray for our: Businesses

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men...Colossians 3:23

The light of believers would shine in their workplace.

Honesty and integrity in the workplace.

“May there be here at least a sanctuary, a land of true faith and piety, where we may still enjoy the blessings of Christianity. May there be here in this nation a place where the name of Christ is still honored and men may see the blessings of faith in Jesus. May the means of religious education and consolation once again be extended to surrounding countries and to the world at large.” — William Wilberforce

Pray for our: Churches

*“How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity!”
Psalm 133:1*

Unity and boldness in proclaiming God’s Word.

That we share the truth: “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners”
1 Timothy 1:15.

The fire of revival would be ignited in our own hearts.

*“More things are wrought with prayer than this world dreams of.”
—Alfred Tennyson*

Pray for our: Schools

“For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.” Proverbs 2:6

Equal opportunities for every student to achieve their full potential.

God-fearing teachers who will encourage and inspire their pupils to achieve good learning skills along with wisdom and common sense.

A safe atmosphere conducive to learning.

“Our Nation was built on the steadfast foundation of the prayers of our ancestors. In times of blessing and crises, stability and change, thanksgiving and repentance, appeals for Divine direction have helped the citizens of the United States to remain faithful to our longstanding commitment to life, liberty and justice for all.” —Bill Clinton
